Day 5 - Wednesday

Continental breakfast buffet at hotel

Today you will participate in a Broadway workshop – “The Art of Quick Change.”

You will have the chance to learn how Broadway professionals often only have seconds to change costumes for a quick scene change. Everyone will have the opportunity to see this quick change happen and then volunteers will be able to take part in this session. Participants will learn how it takes many people, both on and off stage, to keep a Broadway show moving. From lights, sound, music, costumes and set changing, a scene can go from a whole different setting in less than 30 seconds. Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions about careers, costumes, set pieces, etc.
